

Category: ENTERTAINMENT

Title: Career Horoscope Today: Astrological Predictions on October 18, 2024, For All Zodiac Signs

Content: Today's Career horoscope promises opportunities for growth and success in professional endeavors. Some signs may experience breakthroughs in their careers, while others may find value in networking and collaboration. Stay driven and open to possibilities! Aries: Your ambition is on fire, but patience? Not so much.

Title: Details Surrounding Death Of One Direction Star Liam Payne

Content: Liam Payne died after falling from a third-floor balcony at a Buenos Aires hotel. His body was removed from the hotel at around 8:30 pm (23:30 GMT) and autopsied. The autopsy established that Payne suffered "multiple traumas" and "internal and ext

Title: 'Black Cab' trailer teases Nick Frost as a terrifying cabbie

Content: Newly engaged couple Anna (Synnøve Karlsen) and Patrick (Luke Norris) are heading home from a dinner when their chatty cab driver takes a turn for the sinister. From asking Anna some highly personal questions about a trip to a maternity ward to straight-up tasing Peter, it's clear this cabbie has no intention of actually taking his passengers home.

Title: WhatsApp Feature: Now you can make video calls even in low light, use low-light mode in WhatsApp like this

Content: Popular messaging platform WhatsApp has recently added a new feature to its app. This feature improves the quality of video calls even in low light. With the introduction of this feature, users will now be able to talk to their friends and family members well.

Category: SPORTS

Title: South Africa reach Women's T20 WC final by crushing Australia in 8-wicket victory

Content: South Africa beat Australia by eight wickets to reach Women's T20 World Cup final. Beth Mooney top-scored with a 42-ball 44 in the first semifinal. Ayabonga Khaka (2/24) was the most successful bowler for South Africa.

Category: POLITICS

Title: Tiruppur police launch 'Operation Zero Crime' to protect students from abuse, drugs and cyber crimes

Content: Operation Zero Crime launched to protect school and college students from sexual abuse, drug-addiction and cyber crimes. A core committee and sub-committees have been formed to keep a tab on the progress of the initiative. The initiative, officials said, is closely aligned with Chief Minister M.K. Stalin's emphasis on safeguarding the well-being of students during their adolescent years.

Title: The fading allure of media endorsements

Content: The editorial board of The New York Times endorsed Kamala Harris. The tradition of media endorsements of political candidates began in 1896. The endorsement was unequivocal, reflecting the view of The Times that there was absolute clarity about "the only patriotic choice for president"

Title: Amazon Great Indian Festival Sale 2024

Content: The QUBO Smart Door Lock Essential from Hero Group is now available at just ₹8,990 down from its original M.R.P. It offers advanced security with 6-way unlocking, including fingerprint, passcode, Bluetooth, and RFID access. Made from durable aluminum alloy, it comes with a sleek black finish.

Title: Bihar Man Arrested for Stealing 15 Lakh from Elderly Couple He Served

Content: Prince Kumar was working as a helper for an elderly couple for two years. The incident occurred on Oct 5, when Kumar stole Rs 15 lakh from the couple's house. A special team tracked down and arrested the accused near the Bihar-Jharkhand border and recovered Rs 14.2 lakh.

Title: Tragic Accident Claims Lives of Cousins Riding Scooter; One Armed with Knife

Content: The deceased are rider J Nagaraj, 30, and Rajesh Kumar P, 27, both private company employees from Bommasandra. Rajesh, who had a knife in his waist, died of injuries caused by the weapon. The two-wheeler rammed a road divider in Hebbal post midnight.